WOHLER NAMES HNB EXCLUSIVE DISTRIBUTOR FOR U.K.

HAYWARD, Calif. — Feb. 24, 2009 — Wohler Technologies Inc. today announced that HNB Communications Ltd., Europe's leading supplier of professional audio technology, will serve as the company's exclusive distributor in the United Kingdom. Through this new partnership with Wohler, HNB will be responsible for all sales and marketing activities in the U.K., servicing existing customers and markets while developing new relationships, particularly with regard to new video products. HNB will distribute the full Wohler product line.

"HNB is the U.K.'s leading supplier of professional audio technology to the broadcast and post industry," said Steve Angel, HNB sales director. "Wohler products are well designed and well built, providing a strong feature set and broadcast quality all the way; we anticipate strong demand for this new offering."

With over 30 years in the business, HNB has grown to become a significant supplier to all of the major broadcasters and facilities companies in the U.K. Among the company's many clients is the BBC, with which HNB holds a special supplier relationship. HNB employs an experienced team of 45 people at its London premises, which is also home to Europe's largest independent pro audio technical service facility.

"HNB boasts a highly experienced technical sales operation, known for providing a superior level of advice and support both before and after the sale," said Kim Templeman-Holmes, VP of global sales and marketing at Wohler. "We're very pleased to have strengthened our relationship with HNB, which is perfectly positioned to provide new and existing Wohler customers with first-rate sales, service, and support for our comprehensive range of monitoring products."
